

IT'S NOT THE PRICE YOU PAY

For Your Living Every Day, But It's What You Get For Your Money!

You may be a millionaire; you may own a palace fair,
In a land that ever "flows with milk and honey."
You may pay the biggest price; but that really "cuts no ice"
For it's WHAT YOU GET FOR YOUR MONEY!

You may be a Son of Toil, amid the world's turmoil,
Have to hustle every day—and that's not funny!
Still, as through this life you go, all joys here below
Depend on WHAT YOU GET FOR YOUR MONEY!

Never before has the public been treated to such a feast in the way of HIGH GRADE BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, MEN'S FURNISHINGS, at such extreme LOW PRICES as we are offering this fall. We guarantee to save you money on each purchase. Call and see us, and be convinced that we carry the most complete line of Boots and Shoes found in Richmond and at prices that will please you.

—Miss H. H. Colyer, Richmond, Ky.

—Sept 20-41

—Mills Get Merry.

—Mr. Allen H. Zaring attended the banquet of the Central Kentucky Millers Association at Lexington last Thursday night. This is an annual event and Mr. Zaring is always on hand.

—Has Heard Them.

—I heard the Meigs Sisters' last summer at the Lexington Chautauque and was delighted with their singing. I consider it the best female quartet I have ever heard.

—J. D. Clark.

—Named him William Goebel.

—Mr. and Mrs. James McCoy welcomed a twelve-pound boy, Wm. Goebel, to their home Monday morning. Jim is the happiest man on Lexington street and took a day off Monday to entertain his distinguished visitor.

—S. N. Venable Mooreley.

—Strayed or Stolen.

—From my premises on Lancaster avenue, last county court day, a white and lemon-spotted female setter, the property of Sam Ross, a liberal reward will be paid for return of same to the undersigned.

—DAN. M. CHENAULT.

—Leaves For Conway.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dykes have moved to Conway, Rockcastle county, to run a store there. Mr. Dykes is a good manager and salesman, and has a nice family who will be a great accession to the village. We wish them success.

—Major McDowell Dead.

—Major Henry Clay McDowell, one of the foremost citizens of the State, died last Saturday near Lexington. He married a granddaughter of Henry Clay, and leaves a wife and six children. Mrs. Belle McDowell, of this city, was a cousin.

—Keep Your Turkeys.

—Again we say to turkey raisers, hold your turkeys. If dealers can't give over 6 cents, let them buy buzzards and ship east. Everything on earth that we use has gone up in price—except turkeys! Hold your birds, if you have to eat them yourself.

—Strayed or Stolen.

—From my premises on Tuesday night, November 7, a white female setter, with lemon spots on body and white speckled face and long tail. Will pay $5 for return of same to undersigned.

—D. R. Travis, Richmond, Ky.

—Rip Van Winkle Here.

—Small-pox Scare.

—Few persons heard of the alleged case of small pox that was reported last week. The rumor arose over the finding of a negro man in the court house yard with symptoms of that disease, but investigation cleared up the mystery and his subsequent death revealed the fact that it was another disease.

—Tharp Recovering.

—Claborn Tharp, who fell from the train at Muddy Creek, some weeks ago, is recovering. It was a narrow escape from death, as the young man first struck the bridge and then fell to the rock bottom of the creek, 15 feet below. He was at the Infirmary here and improved so as to be able to return to his home in Estill. He is a son of ex-Judge Tharp.

—Mr. Strong Got There O. K.

—Mr. Henry J. Strong, lately of this city, was the only one who had no opposition in the election of officers of the Kentucky League of American Wheelmen. One hundred and ninety-five votes were cast. The result was as follows:

—For Chief Consul—Thos. B. Dewhurst, Lexington, 50; R. F. Pelouse, Louisville, 140.

—For Vice Consul—H. J. Strong, Richmond, 126.

—For Secretary and Treasurer—Owen Lawson, Louisville, 190.

—For Representative—P. E. Allison, Louisville, 182; Chas. E. Dudley, Paris, 89; Dr. J. O. Jenkins, Newport, 83.

—Tuesday, November 28, is Donation Day at the Infirmary, and to it is called the attention of our good people to the fact that they can render the Institution a great service at a very small cost to themselves if only every one will bring some gift, however small on that day. Think what it would mean to the support fund, if every child brought even one egg or one potato. Anything that you can use in your own home is needed there, so don't hesitate to bring anything you may be able to spare from your own stores.

—The need especially is: groceries of all kinds, coal, kindling, corn, oil, salt, dried, preserved or canned fruits and vegetables, table cloths, napkins, tray cloths, sheets for single beds, pillow cases, towels and dishes. A committee will be on hand to welcome you and receive your gifts, from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Covington & Mitchell.

Caught a Wild Cat.

Judge John C. Chenault and Mr. A. D. Miller while out bird hunting in the free State of Estill, last week, captured a wildcat which they boxed up and exhibited in the Climax office. The animal, though a young one, is much larger than the ordinary house cat, but exactly like it in appearance, though so vicious that spectators kept at a distance from the teeth and claws of the ferocious animal. The capture of the wild cat was considered as notable as the 75 partridges that Messrs. Chenault and Miller pulled down with their Parkers.

David Freeman Dead.

Mason, Mo., Nov. 11.—David Freeman, a Mason county pioneer, died this morning on his farm, near Callan, where he had lived sixty years. He was born in Warren county, Kentucky, in 1819. Several years ago he had his coffin built and personally superintended its construction. Then it was stored away to await the summons that has just come.

Are You Going to Marry?

"Squire D. P. Armer has received his commission as Magistrate in the Richmond district, and has gotten out and polished up his famous marriage ceremony which united many happy lives in the holy bonds of wedlock when he was serving as Magistrate before. Parties who are in quest of his services call up 68 by telephone and we will have the Squire in readiness in three shakes of a sheep's tail."

$5 Reward.

Strayed from my farm on the Maple Grove turnpike, one mile from Millport Station, a red milk cow, three years old, with white spot in forehead and white spot on shoulder and hips, brush of tail cut short, dehorned, in good condition and weighed about 900 pounds when last seen a week since. Will give $5 reward to any person bringing said cow to my premises.

GREEN LOWERY, Moberley, Ky.

When a housekeeper gets ready for winter she wishes the weather would quit fooling and begin.
